Camp Hope Family Weekend will operate on the principle of looking to the Lord for guidance and provision rather than men. Because of this, there will not be a set charge or suggested offering to the camp. From the outset, it is realized that many young families would not be able to meet the expenses of such a camp weekend but that the Lord would move in the hearts of others to give above the cost of their coming in order to supply the needs of others. This whole ministry requires faith and exercise of heart for all involved; for the board in planning and keeping the expenses at a minimum and for the campers to pray, work and be sensitive to the Lord's leading concerning the needs of the camp. With this in mind, we would ask you to please be responsible in both the helping and giving as the Lord enables.

Dress Guidelines

In order to insure that clothing worn by males and females will contribute to the spirit of camp in a positive way by being modest and acceptable, the following information is provided. No spaghetti straps, halter, midriff tops (shirts must cover stomach with arms extended over head), immodest bathing suits, dresses of improper cut, strapless or low-cut tops, front and back. No cleavage should be visible. Ask yourself "Can anyone see down my shirt especially from the front when I bend over?" Shorts must be of proper fit and no shorter than longest finger when hanging at your side. Males should not wear ripped out shirts. This applies to all activities at Camp Hope.
