

For Your Information

Insurance

All claims for medical services must be submitted to the camper's parent's or guardian's insurance company first. Then any unpaid balance may be paid by the camps limited insurance policy. Parent or guardian will be primarily responsible for routine or emergency medical expenses.

Camp Telephone

Camp has one telephone used for business purposes only. It is not available for general use. PLEASE DO NOT CALL YOUR CAMPER OR ASK THEM TO CALL HOME, except in the case of an emergency.

Cabin Assignments

Cabins are assigned by age and made by the Camp Director. Cabin assignment with two friends will be considered if campers are no more than one year apart. This request must be made on the registration form by both campers for each other. The cabin requests are not guaranteed.

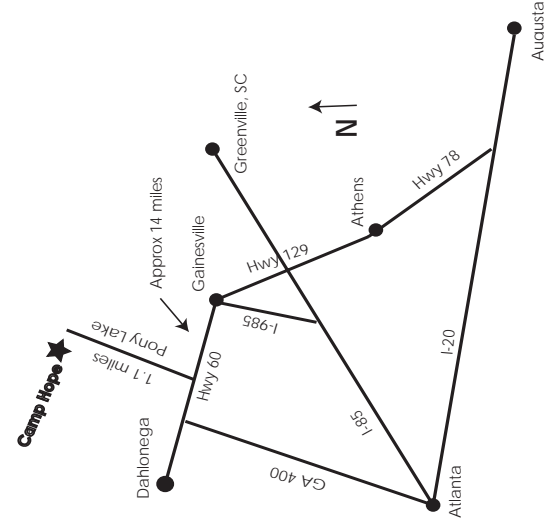

The parent's signature on the registration form gives permission for the camper to attend supervised off camp activities or field trips.

What to Bring

Bible, notebook, flashlight, linens and blanket or sleeping bag, clothes for a full week, pillow, towels, washcloth, toilet articles, sweater/jacket, one piece bathing suit, musical instrument, fishing tackle, clothes for dress up banquet. Optional: spending money for camp store and daily canteen. Laundry service available for multiple teen week campers only.

Dress Guidelines

In order to insure that clothing worn by males and females will contribute to the spirit of camp in a positive way by being modest and acceptable, the following information is provided. No spaghetti straps, halter, midriff tops (shirts must cover stomach with arms extended over head), immodest bathing suits, dresses of improper cut, strapless or low-cut tops, front and back. No cleavage should be visible. Please be aware of the impact of what you wear has on other campers. Shorts must be of proper fit and no shorter than longest finger when hanging at your side. Dresses and skirts must come to the top of the knee. Males should not wear ripped out shirts. This applies to all activities at Camp Hope.

Late arrival must be pre-approved by the Camp Director.

To apply complete both sides of registration form, enclose $80 deposit per camper and mail to:
