Camp Hope is looking for life guards for the 2010 summer season. Camp would like to have 2-3 life guards per week of camp. To help this take place, camp is willing to pay for the life guard certification of anyone who will give 2-3 weeks of time during the summer. We need to start looking for a class in January or February so you can be certified in April or May. If you are interested, please contact Steve Roys at 678.316.7309 or camphopega@arilion.com.

Girls Challenge

A camper's favorite part of Girls Challenge Camp was: People! This includes messages from Mrs. Carol on being transformed into HIS image, fun times with campers and counselors on high ropes, games with Mr. Norman and friends. Sleeping under stars!! Relaxing in the craft room after days of intense adventure. Overall the week was an encouraging, uplifting, bonding time and nobody wanted to go home.

A junior counselor's view was: learning to overcome fears with a group of good supportive friends, learning to be adventurous and prepared for life and also how to treat myself as precious in God's sight.

A counselor sees Girls Challenge Camp in this way: It is amazing to watch the girls grow in Christ, learning to trust in Him. Watching them form friendships in a short time that will last a lifetime is priceless.

Junior 2 Camp

We had a full camp this year and had an absolutely great time at Junior 2. Christmas in June was just one of the holidays celebrated this year as one or two different holidays were celebrated each day. The lessons would compare the worlds view of each holiday to what the Bible tells us. From Christmas stockings on the fireplace to fireworks over the lake on Independence Day we had a great time enjoying the seasons. Most nights we were treated to the soulful stylings of 'The two bald guys and the one with hair' as songs of the season and holiday were sung. Mr. Nate taught the kids the true meaning of such holidays as Christmas, Valentine's, Thanksgiving and even St. Patrick's day. Also, Mr. Clean kept the kids busy with games and contests which included a record amount of first time kids saying their patch verses. The ladies in the craft cabin met with all the kids and from wood crafts to decorating cookies had crafts that even the Cabin 4 boys enjoyed.
